

Château Coussin rosé

Sainte Victoire Côtes de Provence

2024

Located on the exceptional terroir of the Sainte Victoire Mountain, where the vines are cultivated since Antiquity, Château Coussin acquired in 1903 by Baptistin Gautier is now owned by his descendants Olivier and Sophie Sumeire 8th generations of winemakers in Provence. This vineyard of 150 hectares, half of which are classified AOP Sainte Victoire, produce rosé, red and white wines of high quality and elegance.

The emblematic carved pediment of the façade adorns the labels of the wines produced on the estate.

TASTING NOTES

Elegant pale colour with pink highlights.

A "classic Coussin" first nose of strawberry, followed by pleasant notes of nectarine and apricot.

This aromatic prelude gives way to a floral palate of rosehip, lively and ample, with a finish of orange and tangerine.

A Sainte-Victoire rosé perfect for any season.

MATCHING FOOD & WINE

This wine will pair beautifully with elegant seafood fare such as tuna tartare, gravlax, lobster risotto as well as a rack of lamb.
